1 About Education at the School of Continuing Studies

1.1 Education (School of Continuing Studies) at McGill

Are you teaching full-time? Would you like to upgrade your skills, learn new teaching strategies, or gain experience in a specialized subject area? The Faculty of Education offers part-time professional development opportunities administered through the School of Continuing Studies. These programs allow educators to enhance their existing knowledge and skills while moving into new areas of the education spectrum.

Offered in conjunction with McGill's Faculty of Education, the in-depth programs provide in-service teachers, facilitators, and academic advisers with compelling coverage of many important education issues. Programs such as Human Relations and Family Life Education, Counselling Applied to Teaching, and Inclusive Education can expand professional horizons while equipping educators to better manage changing classroom realities.

The Office of First Nations and Inuit Education (OFNIE) offers multiple programs in the areas of Indigenous education, language, and culture. The Faculty of Education, in collaboration with various Indigenous communities and institutions, offers both community-based and campus-based programs. OFNIE's teacher education programs lead to initial teacher certification, the Bachelor of Education for Teachers, and professional development.

2.4 Graduate Certificate in Counselling Applied to Teaching

The goal of this program is to enhance teachers' knowledge and skills in a variety of areas.

Admission Requirements

1. An undergraduate degree with a CGPA of at least 3.0 out of 4.0 (some courses will be taken concurrently with the diploma and graduate studies; therefore, students must have demonstrated equivalent levels of accomplishment in their undergraduate studies)
2. Certification as a teacher, current teaching or student services position in a school or community organization serving children and adolescents, or other justification for admission to the program (in all cases, the program reserves discretion about the appropriateness of alternative qualifications to a teaching certificate)
3. A three- to six-page statement of experience working with children and adolescents, career aspirations, and reasons for seeking admission to this program
4. At least two letters of recommendation addressing academic abilities, qualifications for working with children and adolescents in a helping role, and general character
5. TOEFL minimum score of 86 (iBT 550 on the PBT) for non-Canadian students from countries where English is not the first language and who have not completed a recognized university degree taught in English

The Department reserves the right to request an interview of any applicant.

Contact Information

Further information may be obtained from the Program Coordinator, Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology at 514-398-4248, or through www.mcgill.ca/edu-ecp

2.4.1 Graduate Certificate (Gr. Cert.) Counselling Applied to Teaching (15 credits)

The goal of this program is to enhance teachers' knowledge and skills in interpersonal relations, communication, interview, group organization and leadership, crisis intervention, and career thinking and planning. Each of these knowledge areas addresses the recognition of situations when it is appropriate to make a referral to a personal or career counsellor, psychologist, or other professional. The program addresses both elementary and secondary education.

This graduate certificate does not qualify graduates to practise professional counselling or psychology (e.g., conducting psychological assessments or psychotherapy), or to refer to themselves by the term Counsellor or Psychologist; these are reserved titles. Programs leading to licensing as Counsellor or Psychologist are presented under Educational and Counselling Psychology (Counselling Psychology and School/Applied Child Psychology) or Psychology (Clinical Psychology) in Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies.
